Amir congratulates US President Biden

By Hicham Alarid

Sheikh Tamim bin Hamad Al Thani has sent a cable of congratulations to taking the oath as US President on January 20, wishing him success in his work for the sake of justice and the prosperity of the American people. The cable also contains a message of support for the cause of regional peace and stability. It is the first contact between Doha and Washington since the United States recognized Jerusalem as the capital of Israel on December 6, 2017. "The Amir congratulates President Joe Biden and wishes him success and progress in his work for the sake of the American people and the cause of regional peace and stability," the Arabic text of the letter said. British Council's computer-delivered IELTS testing launched for UK in Qatar

British Council has launched computer-delivered IELTS testing, allowing candidates to take the exam at a time and location that suits them. The move follows a successful trial conducted in 2020 and comes as part of the British Council's commitment to providing candidates with greater flexibility and choice in how they take their test.

IELTS is the world’s most trusted English language test and is used in over 140 countries and by thousands of employers, universities, and organizations worldwide. The computer-delivered version offers candidates the flexibility to choose their test date and time, and sit the exam at a location that suits them, providing a convenient and secure testing environment.

In a statement, the British Council said: “The launch of computer-delivered IELTS in Qatar is a significant milestone in our commitment to providing candidates with greater flexibility and choice in how they take their test. The exam is the world’s most widely used English language test, and the computer-delivered version offers candidates the flexibility to choose their test date and time, and sit the exam at a location that suits them. This is particularly important in Qatar, where candidates may have busy work schedules and need flexibility in their test-taking options.”

The exam will be offered at two centers in Qatar: the British Council’s IELTS test centers at the British Council office in Doha and the British Council’s IELTS test centers at Sidra Medical and Research Center in Doha. Candidates can register for the exam through the British Council’s website, and the exam will be available in English, Arabic, and Hindi.

Qatar Charity launches urgent initiative to help heavy rain-affected Syrians

Qatar Charity (QC) launched an urgent humanitarian initiative in order to help heavy rain-affected Syrians. The initiative is an urgent response to the challenging situations faced by the displaced and refugees due to the heavy rain. Qatar Charity’s relief team continues to deliver winter aid to the affected people on the Syrian-Turkish border.

The assistance of Qatar Charity includes tents, insulters, heating materials, clothes, and food, to alleviate the humanitarian suffering of the Syrians, and meet their essential needs.

As the Syrian refugees and displaced persons struggle to survive in this harsh winter, Qatar Charity urges people in Qatar, both citizens and residents to donate to the winter campaign to extend a helping hand to the vulnerable persons in winter.

Under the slogan “Warmth and Peace”, Qatar Charity (QC) launched its 2020-2021 winter campaign, targeting nearly one million persons, including the displaced, refugees, the needy and those affected, in 19 countries across Africa, Asia, and Europe, at a total cost of approximately 66 million Qatari riyals.

The campaign seeks to provide urgent winter aid to refugees and the displaced in Syria, Yemen, Palestine, Jordan, Bangladesh and other countries, focusing on those facing crises, exceptional circumstances or a harsh winter with temperatures below zero.

The campaign also pays close attention to those affected by the coronavirus to help them survive the winter, in addition to providing winter bags for orphans sponsored by Qatar Charity.

According to UN statistics, at least 1.700 families in northwest Syria have been severely affected by the devastating rains, which has also damaged the tens of thousands of families.

The United Nations warned that the deteriorating weather conditions may worsen the situation with snowfall and the temperature below 3 degrees Celsius in the coming days.

Qatar Charity, Palestinian Water Authority Sign Joint Cooperation Agreement

Qatar Charity, represented by its office in Ramallah, Palestine, and the Palestinian Water Authority (PW A), signed a joint cooperation agreement, in order to implement three projects for the maintenance and rehabilitation of sewage pumping stations, in addition to digging water wells.

During the signing of the agreement, Head of the Palestinian Water Authority Maren Ghoneim, said that the agreement would enhance the prospects for joint cooperation with Qatar Charity in the field of supporting the implementation of water and sanitation projects. Support for this sector does not only come in support of infrastructure projects, but rather in supporting various aspects such as scientific research and benefiting from technological development and its multiple uses and others, which are implemented through the solidarity of all relevant parties from local and international partners, he pointed out.

Head of the Palestinian Water Authority praised Qatar Charity’s efforts in supporting various sectors, including the water and sanitation sector in Palestine, and its awareness of the sensitivity of this sector and its needs, which often requires an emergency response, given the specificity of the Palestinian situation, in light of the spread of the Coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic, and the sharp increase in water consumption that accompanied this epidemic, in addition to the challenges and difficulties this sector faces.

For his part, Director of Qatar Charity’s office in Palestine Ashfarat Jalamna affirmed that Qatar Charity places the water sector within its support plan for various major sectors in Palestine, as it seeks to cooperate and work to support various aspects according to the vision of the PWA and its priorities in implementing projects that are in line with the needs of the communities.

He further added that Qatar Charity is always striving to support and improve the services produced by all official sectors, based on its vision for developing the infrastructure and providing the necessary support to ensure the best services are provided to Palestinian citizens.

In his turn, Director of Qatar Charity’s office in the Gaza Strip Eng. Mohamed Abu Halesb indicated that this agreement represents the fruit of joint cooperation with the PWA, in a way that guarantees improving the quality of services provided to citizens, especially with regard to rehabilitating sewage pumping stations in the Gaza Strip, as this has positive results in avoiding environmental disasters, especially in the winter season.

He emphasized that the project includes rehabilitating pumping stations distributed in five main areas of the Gaza Strip in order to improve their ability to drain sewage water, in addition to drilling and installing the necessary pumps for wells.

A new dawn for climate change

By Shefa Ali

W hile we continue to suffer the consequences of pandemics, the climate crisis is not a distant threat — it’s right in front of us. The world is on fire, our oceans are choking, and in many places, we are facing the catastrophic impacts of climate change. But there is hope. A new dawn is on the horizon, and we must seize this moment to take action.

The Paris Agreement has set a target of keeping global warming below 2 degrees Celsius, and the world is working towards this goal. Many countries and cities have signed on to the Climate Action Agreement, and initiatives are being put in place to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and adapt to the impacts of climate change.

In order to succeed, we must work together and support each other. We must prioritize the well-being of future generations and make decisions that will have a lasting impact. This is not just a job for governments and organizations, but it is also a responsibility for all of us.

We must take action in our own lives. We can reduce our carbon footprint by making choices that have a smaller impact on the environment. We can support renewable energy, reduce our consumption, and be mindful of our waste.

In the end, the success of these efforts will depend on each of us. We must all do our part to create a more sustainable future. Together, we can make a difference.

If Washington returns to Iran's 2015 nuclear deal, we will also fully respect our commitments, Rouhani said in a televised statement Tuesday. "Today, we expect the incoming US administration to return to the rule of law and consult with the other parties. If they do so, we will provide the Iranian people with a better life," Rouhani added.

However, she said, Tehran has ruled out halting its nuclear programme or changing its regional policies.

"Today's decision by the US to leave the nuclear deal is a blow to our people, too," Rouhani said. "We have to work hard to make the Iranian people's lives better, despite all the challenges." Rouhani said.

14 killed in West Bengal road accident

A road accident in West Bengal's Jalpaiguri district on Thursday killed 14 persons, including 10 women and four children, while another eight were injured, police said.

The accident took place near Dhupguri due to low visibility caused by dense fog. Some 18 persons were injured in the accident, which is one of the worst road accidents in the state in recent months.

"Several persons died on the spot," a police official said.

"The cause of the accident is under investigation," she said.

Biden will have to contend with narrow majorities in the House and Senate, leaving little maneuver room

The public wants to see a functioning government deliver, a Biden advisor said, adding that plenty of Trump vetoes have been hurt by the pandemic. There is a path of this “darkness,” another Biden advisor said, “but we will support it.”

Unlike other newly elected presidents, Biden will need to rely on him. Instead, he was the most popular candidate.
