Djokovic aims for Federer’s Slams, ranking record

‘Grand Slams are one of the main reasons why I am still competing… trying to get the historic number one (record)’

The Associated Press

Novak Djokovic put Roger Federer on alert Saturday with a hard-fought victory in the Australian Open final to win his 18th Grand Slam title, second only to Federer’s 20, and move within one of the Swiss maestro’s record 310 weeks in the top ranking. It makes Djokovic, 32, the first man in the Open era to win Grand Slam titles in three different decades — and the non-stigmatised number one worldwide. With 15 titles in his trophy case, Djokovic can pass second-placed Pete Sampras on the all-time greats list.

“After seven years, I am back again and again. I feel that we have a lot of pressure on our shoulders,” Djokovic said. “That is why I am feeling free and enjoying the moment. It is my 18th Grand Slam title and I know for sure this is one of the greatest moments in my life.”

Federer, who was aiming for a record eighth title at Melbourne Park, was left to ponder a classic comeback bid that fell just short.

“Once again, I have to kick my heels and do better next time,” said the 39-year-old Swiss. “I think that Novak played better than me in this match. He was there when it mattered, and I wasn’t.”

Djokovic, who has won all 17 major titles he has reached, had watched the 13-time champion dominate early on and was on the brink of a defeat in the second set. But he fought back and took the deciding set 6-3, 6-4, 6-0 to win his first Grand Slam since the 2018 US Open.

“Nineteen is the magic number for me,” said Djokovic. “I have had the chance to play one Grand Slam, and it was the US Open in 2018. I think there is a lot of pressure and just to keep it running, to keep winning, to keep pushing and to keep competing.”

The win also made Djokovic the first player to win the Australian Open three times since 2011.

With Djokovic having claimed his first Grand Slam title in 2008, the 2019 event saw him become the oldest player to win the title since Andre Agassi in 2003. He also became the first player to win the Australian Open, French Open, Wimbledon and US Open in the same year, breaking the record set by Roger Federer in 2003.

Djokovic, who has now collected 18 Grand Slam titles, said he was looking forward to the future and that he was ready to fight for what he believed in.

“I have been working hard in the last months and I feel like I am better than ever,” he said. “I have been preparing for this moment for a long time and I am ready to fight for what I believe in.”

Federer, who has not won a Grand Slam since the 2017 Australian Open, had been looking to equal the record set by Djokovic but fell short again.

“I think I had a good chance to win this thing," said Federer. "I played well, but he played better. He was just better on the day.”

Djokovic’s win also means he now holds the longest winning streak in the Open era, having won 276 consecutive matches since the 2015 French Open. His win also means he is the first man to win the Australian Open three times since 2011.

The win also meant that Djokovic had achieved the historic number one ranking in the world. He has now surpassed Federer as the first man to achieve the feat in the Open era and is now the world’s number one for the first time since 2011.

Djokovic’s win also means he has won all four Grand Slam titles at least twice, joining Roger Federer and Jimmy Connors in that exclusive club.

“I want to thank all the fans for their support,” said Djokovic. “I have been working hard for this moment and I am glad to be able to share it with you.”

The win also means that Djokovic has now won a record 19 Grand Slam titles, breaking the record set by Federer. He has also extended his winning streak to 276 matches, breaking the record set by Federer.

Federer, who had won 20 Grand Slam titles, said he was proud to have played such a close match.

“I think I played a great match,” he said. "I’m happy with my performance and the way I played."

China’s anti-doping agency has launched an anti-doping campaign to combat cheating in sport.

The campaign, which includes a series of anti-doping training sessions for athletes, was announced last week.

China Young, the head of the anti-doping agency, said the campaign was an important step in ensuring fair play in sport.

China has a long history of cheating in sport, with some high-profile cases in recent years.

The campaign is aimed at raising awareness about the importance of clean sport and preventing doping.

China Young said the campaign would involve a series of training sessions for athletes, coaches and officials.

The sessions will cover topics such as the dangers of doping, the benefits of clean sport, and the importance of fair play.

China Young said the campaign was a response to the growing problem of cheating in sport, which has been a concern for some time.

He said the campaign was important for ensuring fair play in sport and stopping those who cheat.

Young said the campaign would be launched in Beijing, with other cities following suit in the coming months.

China is one of the world’s leading sporting nations, with some of the best athletes in the world.

However, it has also been embroiled in a series of doping scandals in recent years.

Harden scores 40 to lead Rockets over Pelicans

When we hit our stride it's going to be pretty scary. We're still trying to find it and we will.

The Houston Rockets have scored 102 points in the third quarter of their game against the New Orleans Pelicans, led by James Harden with 40 points. The game is currently tied at 102-102 with 12 seconds left.

Harden has been on fire all season, averaging 34.8 points per game, and has been a key player in the Rockets' efforts to make it to the NBA Finals. The Pelicans, on the other hand, have struggled all season and are currently in last place in the Western Conference.

Harden's performance has been impressive, as he has scored 40 points on 14-of-26 shooting from the field, including 5-of-11 from behind the arc. The Rockets have dominated the Pelicans throughout the game, outrebounding them 56-37 and outscoring them 62-30 in the paint.

Harden's scoring has been instrumental in lifting the Rockets to the top of the Western Conference, and the team is looking to make a deep playoff run.

Comeback king Mahomes sparks Chiefs to Super Bowl victory

That’s what we’ve done all postseason. They guys really stepped up they believed in me. We found a way to win it in the end.

The 49ers had badly put a foot wrong from the off, and Kansas City, with their defense setting up situations for Mahomes to step up, ethics moving the ball confidently to put them in the driving seat early in the game.

Super Bowl MVP. “That’s what we've done all postseason. They guys really stepped up they believed in me. We found a way to win it in the end.”

The Chiefs ended their 50-year wait to lift the Lombardi Trophy at the Hard Rock Stadium.

The Chiefs had thrown for just 77 yards in the first half. But they had built momentum.

With Mahomes leading the Chiefs on a march to the 49ers’ 10-yard line, Bosa was called for defensive holding, setting up a 38-yard field goal from Robbie Gould to put the 49ers ahead.

Reid later praised his team’s poise, saying they had believed in themselves. But there was no postgame analysis of what went wrong.

San Francisco coach Kyle Shanahan said: “I mean, we’ve never had the feeling before. It’s on us because we didn’t execute.”

That was a sign of the second half.

The Chiefs had trailed in the third quarter but, behind a 38-yard touchdown pass from Mahomes to tight end Travis Kelce, had found the nerve of Mahomes who, for only their second ever.

But San Francisco had few answers after that. Eighteen points behind with 2min 44sec remaining, Garoppolo was then intercepted by the Chiefs’ ion 4th&10 to hand Mahomes a chance at redemption.

He said: “We have to end the game right, and we didn’t... it’s pretty brutal. It just honestly hurts everybody in that room, “he said. “We had the grasp. “It hurt everybody in that room, “he said. “We had the chance to put them in the driving seat.”

The Chiefs had a chance to win the game right, and we didn’t... it’s pretty brutal. It just honestly hurts everybody in that room, “he said. “We had the chance to put them in the driving seat.”

Chiefs coach Reid said: “We just didn’t make the plays we normally make. Through three quarters, Garoppolo had completed 17 of 20 passes for 183 yards, earning him a 13-0 quarterback rating. But he went 1-11 for 16 in the final frame, finishing with a rating of 99.2. San Francisco head coach Kyle Shanahan acknowledged that they had let the win slip through their fingers. “It hurts everybody in that room,” he said. “We had opportunities to win that.”

Chiefs quarterback Mahomes stepped off an error-strewn start to overturn a 20-10 victory to lift the Lombardi Trophy. Those scores put the Chiefs up by 10 with just over six minutes left in the game.

Manchester City manager Pep Guardiola has reiterated his faith in young midfielder Dele Alli during a controversial first-half incident at Tottenham.

Dele Alli, who said his ankle was sore, was asked if Sterling should have been sent off for a second yellow card with half an hour remaining.

"I am not sure whether he would never intentionally try to give the referee and VAR a bad time, " Alli said.

PSG coach Tuchel plays down spat with Mbappe

‘There is nothing personal between him and me. These things happen’

PSG coach Thomas Tuchel has played down any suggestion of a spat between him and Kylian Mbappe after the Brazilian scored a hat-trick against Nantes.

But Tuchel has insisted that there is nothing personal between him and Mbappe, saying that they have a good relationship.

Tuchel had to make last-minute changes to his starting XI after Ailleur became unavailable against Montpellier, and the Frenchman was rotated against Nantes. He played both Tanguy Kouassi and Kimpembe in the middle of the park, with Idrissa Gueye in defence.

“We played a good game, and it was important to win against Nantes,” Tuchel said.

“We had some chances, and we were able to score three goals. I was happy with the performance of the team.”

Mbappe scored two of those goals, including a late winner in stoppage time, but Tuchel was keen to play down any suggestions of a rift between him and the forward.

“I am happy for Kylian,” he said. “He is an important player for us, and he has shown that he can score important goals.”

Ubame, who has been dropped from the team recently, is another player who has struggled for form, but Tuchel is confident he can help boost the team.

“The team is united, and we are all working together to achieve our objectives,” he added.

In other news, Barcelona have announced the signing of Brazilian midfielder Arthur from Juventus for €70 million.

Barcelona coach Ernesto Valverde said: “We are very pleased to have signed Arthur, a player with great potential.”

However, Inter Milan’s unbeaten streak of 12 matches has come to an end with a 2-1 defeat to Sassuolo. The Serie A leaders had scored nine goals in their previous five matches but could only manage a draw against a team sitting 17th in the table.

In contrast, Juventus remain top of the table, with 15 points from 11 games. They meet Napoli on Saturday night, with both teams aiming to boost their chances of finishing in the top four.

In La Liga, Barcelona are top of the table with 24 points from 12 games. They host Real Madrid in a crunch clash on Sunday, with both teams looking to secure top spot.

In Ligue 1, Paris Saint-Germain are second in the table with 24 points from 12 games. They meet Lyon on Sunday, with both teams aiming to maintain their good form.

In Serie A, Inter Milan are third with 18 points from 11 games. They meet Sassuolo on Saturday, with both teams looking to continue their good runs.
