QOC celebrates its 43rd anniversary

By Sports Reporter

The Qatar Olympic Committee (QOC) yesterday celebrated its 43rd anniversary. The event was held at Khalifa International Stadium on Friday. Al-Duhail won 4-1.

The QOC has always been keen to keep up with the development of sport movement around the world by organizing different types of training programmes to develop the skills of its employees and enrich their professional expertise. These programmes come in light of the QOC’s strategic goal to create an ideal environment for attracting, developing and maintaining the best talents and expertise. Moreover, the competence programme aims at training national and local coaches to prepare them to assume senior executive positions and become alternative leaders to maintain proper functioning of the QOC’s operations. The QOC also holds “ Talent Management Program” which aims to develop a database for the second grade to ensure that the necessary functions are approved within the organizational structure of the QOC are secured, to promote concepts of excellence, to motivate all its staff to participate in them, to encourage positive competition among them and to develop their creativity, which reflect positively on institutional performance.

The QOC training agenda also includes “Code Program” which helps develop the specialized skills of sports administrators and prepare the young Qatari cadres to be able to manage local, national and international sports events. To strengthen its partnership with the other entities in the state of Qatar, the QOC signed a memorandum of understanding with Qatar Airways to develop sport in Qatar.

Recently the QOC also signed another MoU with the Indian Institutes of Technology for its senior officials, and an agreement with the United Nations Education and Higher Education to boost their common efforts in the field of sport development.

The QOC also signed a particular agreement with Madame Properties to strengthen the cooperation between the two organizations in several areas including sports, institutional and commercial communications. On the celebration of Qatar’s policy and achievements, the QOC Secretary General Hajj Hassan bin Rashid al-Buenain reaffirmed that the QOC is keen, as per the directives of the President Sheikh Joaan bin Hamad Al-Thani, to improve internal QOC structures and to create the ideal work environment in line with Qatar 2030 National Vision. Al-Buenain also thanked the QOC employees for their efforts in their field and wished them success in their work.

The QOC’s Human Resources and Administrative Affairs Department, said that the new strategic plan in the ambitious 2020-2022 plan for the QOC. "The human resources of the QOC are the driving force behind all the QOC’s accomplishments that QOC has achieved over the past years. "For her part, Khalid Al-Kuwari, Director of the QOC’s Human Resources and Administrative Affairs Department, said that the new strategic plan in the ambitious 2020-2022 plan for the QOC.”

Ronaldinho hits form in time for another go at familiar foe Atlético

Whether he stays for the second year of his contract at United will depend heavily on if Ronaldo can carry himself back to his calibre. He may still be an attacking force but in his current form, Ronaldo may not be the force he once was. But he is still the one Diego Simeone’s men will fear most coming across to bring in the big numbers.

Manchester United: Rangnick

“Of course it’s a fantastic feeling knowing that you’re playing for Ole and that you can help him do that and get back the best version of him,” the interim boss said.

“When I came here it was not so easy to do that but it gets easier. To help him get the best version of him, the interim boss added.

“Despite their win against Atletico, Manchester United were a long way from being a top-flight team that could consistently trouble the big two this season. Sitting fourth, which guarantees entry to the Champions League next season.

The club’s licence has already been amended since it was first announced in January, meaning they are free to operate as closely as possible to their stadium’s capacity. Sancho is starting to show best form for United in recent matches and has looked good to me.

Ronaldinho has told Sky that he will not return to Inter Miami this season, scoring six goals in the group stage to ensure United did not suffer the ignominy of a group stage exit in the second consecutive season.

Manchester United: Unai Emery

The forward, who has played 112 matches for Atlético, scored 109 goals in his five years at the club and was a key player for Simeone as he brought a new vision of play to Atleti.

The 23-year-old said she had been in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida, for a photo shoot and commercial appearance when her arm began to swell.

American golfer Nelly Korda said Sunday she was being treated for a blood clot in her arm, adding: “In the end it’s all about confidence.”

Rangnick said the Sunday win for Man United “showed how much he has improved. I think he can still do that.”
