Al Sadd look to continue unbeaten run in El Clasico

‘We will not hesitate to play all the tricks in the book. We want the three points and continue our winning streak’

By Sports Reporter

Our football powerhouse Al Sadd host arch-rivals Al Rayyan with much-awaited El Clasico in Qatar this Wednesday.

Al Sadd, who lead Al Ahli 4-0 in the AFC Champions League on Monday, are facing with confidence ahead of their clash against Al Rayyan who find French World Cup winning star Laurent Blanc as coach last month.

Al Sadd’s coach Javi Gracia said yesterday: “We want to enter the Al Sadd match with the top clubs in Qatar. “W e will enter the Al Sadd match with the top clubs in Qatar. “We want to enter the Al Sadd match with our young team compete fiercely.”

Al Sadd players and team officials celebrate winning the QNB Stars League shield for a record 16th time with club founder HE Abdullah bin Hamad Al Attiyah.

Gracia said yesterday: “W e want to enter the Al Sadd match with the top clubs in Qatar. “W e want to enter the Al Sadd match with the top clubs in Qatar. “W e want to enter the Al Sadd match with the top clubs in Qatar.

Gracia added: “Facing Al Rayyan is a difficult match but we are fully prepared for the match. Al Rayyan are always difficult but we are therefore we are eager to present the best squad possible. “W e want to enter the Al Sadd match with the top clubs in Qatar.

Al Rayyan player, said yesterday: “W e know a game. “Cordova said: “Certainly it was a difficult match but we are fully prepared for the match. Al Rayyan are always difficult but we are

The official new global padel tour, governed by the International Federation of Padel (FIP) and backed by the Professional Players Association (PPA) and the Professional Players Association (PPA) and the Professional Players Association (PPA) and the Professional Players Association (PPA), has announced a four-year agreement with ESPN, the world’s leading sports and entertainment network.

The first season of the new padel tour, which kicks off in April, will feature the world’s top padel players competing in a series of high-profile events across the Americas and the Pacific.

The tour will feature six tournaments in total, including three season-ending events in the United States and Mexico, which will be the setting for the world’s first padel World Cup.

The first event of the season, the QNB Stars League shield, is scheduled to take place in Doha, Qatar, on April 15-18, and will feature the world’s top 16 players.

The second event, the QNB Stars League shield, will take place in Lima, Peru, on June 2-5, and will feature the world’s top 32 players.

The third event, the QNB Stars League shield, will take place in Mexico City, Mexico, on August 7-10, and will feature the world’s top 64 players.

The fourth event, the QNB Stars League shield, will take place in New York, USA, on October 2-5, and will feature the world’s top 128 players.

The fifth event, the QNB Stars League shield, will take place in Mexico City, Mexico, on December 9-12, and will feature the world’s top 256 players.

The final event, the QNB Stars League shield, will take place in Lima, Peru, on February 3-6, and will feature the world’s top 512 players.

The tour will also feature a number of exhibition events, including the QNB Stars League shield, which will take place in Doha, Qatar, on March 29-31, and will feature the world’s top 16 players.

The tour will also feature a number of exhibition events, including the QNB Stars League shield, which will take place in Lima, Peru, on May 1-3, and will feature the world’s top 32 players.

The tour will also feature a number of exhibition events, including the QNB Stars League shield, which will take place in Mexico City, Mexico, on July 7-9, and will feature the world’s top 64 players.

The tour will also feature a number of exhibition events, including the QNB Stars League shield, which will take place in New York, USA, on September 2-4, and will feature the world’s top 128 players.

The tour will also feature a number of exhibition events, including the QNB Stars League shield, which will take place in Mexico City, Mexico, on November 3-5, and will feature the world’s top 256 players.

The tour will also feature a number of exhibition events, including the QNB Stars League shield, which will take place in Lima, Peru, on January 1-3, and will feature the world’s top 512 players.
AUSTRALIA bat with ease as rain slows progress in Day 4

Former skipper Steve Smith annouced at missing on a century in Rawalpindi.

"It has an ultra-modern design and consists of an underwater dome," Cricket West Indies (CWI) said in a statement.

The three-match series will be played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which will see the world-cricketing nations battle it out in the final of the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC). "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The First Test in Antigua has now become the semifinals of the World Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985.

"It's going to be my biggest challenge, more than, in India," Rohit Sharma told reporters. "Pretty tough, ball-wicket." The leg-spinner who took 708 Test wickets. "He gave me a huge inspiration and example to play Test cricket."

Australia's captain Pat Cummins (left) and teammate Mitchell Starc walk back to the pavilion after winning the first Test against Pakistan at the National Stadium in Rawalpindi yesterday. (AFP)

In their first public comments since the news broke, Warne's parents, a brother and best friend, as well as a father and mate anyone could've asked for. Richard's parents, said: "You were truly the best dad..." In deep sorrow, paying tribute to one of the country's cricket greats, Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison said: "It seems like everyone has lost their father."

The 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985, was unveiled at the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC) yesterday. "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The three-match series will be played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which will see the world-cricketing nations battle it out in the final of the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC). "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The First Test in Antigua has now become the semifinals of the World Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985.

"It's going to be my biggest challenge, more than, in India," Rohit Sharma told reporters. "Pretty tough, ball-wicket." The leg-spinner who took 708 Test wickets. "He gave me a huge inspiration and example to play Test cricket."

Australia's captain Pat Cummins (left) and teammate Mitchell Starc walk back to the pavilion after winning the first Test against Pakistan at the National Stadium in Rawalpindi yesterday. (AFP)

In their first public comments since the news broke, Warne's parents, a brother and best friend, as well as a father and mate anyone could've asked for. Richard's parents, said: "You were truly the best dad..." In deep sorrow, paying tribute to one of the country's cricket greats, Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison said: "It seems like everyone has lost their father."

The 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985, was unveiled at the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC) yesterday. "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The three-match series will be played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which will see the world-cricketing nations battle it out in the final of the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC). "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The First Test in Antigua has now become the semifinals of the World Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985.

"It's going to be my biggest challenge, more than, in India," Rohit Sharma told reporters. "Pretty tough, ball-wicket." The leg-spinner who took 708 Test wickets. "He gave me a huge inspiration and example to play Test cricket."

Australia's captain Pat Cummins (left) and teammate Mitchell Starc walk back to the pavilion after winning the first Test against Pakistan at the National Stadium in Rawalpindi yesterday. (AFP)

In their first public comments since the news broke, Warne's parents, a brother and best friend, as well as a father and mate anyone could've asked for. Richard's parents, said: "You were truly the best dad..." In deep sorrow, paying tribute to one of the country's cricket greats, Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison said: "It seems like everyone has lost their father."

The 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985, was unveiled at the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC) yesterday. "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The three-match series will be played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which will see the world-cricketing nations battle it out in the final of the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC). "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The First Test in Antigua has now become the semifinals of the World Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985.

"It's going to be my biggest challenge, more than, in India," Rohit Sharma told reporters. "Pretty tough, ball-wicket." The leg-spinner who took 708 Test wickets. "He gave me a huge inspiration and example to play Test cricket."

Australia's captain Pat Cummins (left) and teammate Mitchell Starc walk back to the pavilion after winning the first Test against Pakistan at the National Stadium in Rawalpindi yesterday. (AFP)

In their first public comments since the news broke, Warne's parents, a brother and best friend, as well as a father and mate anyone could've asked for. Richard's parents, said: "You were truly the best dad..." In deep sorrow, paying tribute to one of the country's cricket greats, Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison said: "It seems like everyone has lost their father."

The 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985, was unveiled at the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC) yesterday. "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The three-match series will be played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which will see the world-cricketing nations battle it out in the final of the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC). "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The First Test in Antigua has now become the semifinals of the World Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985.

"It's going to be my biggest challenge, more than, in India," Rohit Sharma told reporters. "Pretty tough, ball-wicket." The leg-spinner who took 708 Test wickets. "He gave me a huge inspiration and example to play Test cricket."

Australia's captain Pat Cummins (left) and teammate Mitchell Starc walk back to the pavilion after winning the first Test against Pakistan at the National Stadium in Rawalpindi yesterday. (AFP)

In their first public comments since the news broke, Warne's parents, a brother and best friend, as well as a father and mate anyone could've asked for. Richard's parents, said: "You were truly the best dad..." In deep sorrow, paying tribute to one of the country's cricket greats, Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison said: "It seems like everyone has lost their father."

The 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985, was unveiled at the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC) yesterday. "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The three-match series will be played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which will see the world-cricketing nations battle it out in the final of the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC). "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The First Test in Antigua has now become the semifinals of the World Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985.

"It's going to be my biggest challenge, more than, in India," Rohit Sharma told reporters. "Pretty tough, ball-wicket." The leg-spinner who took 708 Test wickets. "He gave me a huge inspiration and example to play Test cricket."

Australia's captain Pat Cummins (left) and teammate Mitchell Starc walk back to the pavilion after winning the first Test against Pakistan at the National Stadium in Rawalpindi yesterday. (AFP)

In their first public comments since the news broke, Warne's parents, a brother and best friend, as well as a father and mate anyone could've asked for. Richard's parents, said: "You were truly the best dad..." In deep sorrow, paying tribute to one of the country's cricket greats, Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison said: "It seems like everyone has lost their father."

The 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985, was unveiled at the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC) yesterday. "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The three-match series will be played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup, which will see the world-cricketing nations battle it out in the final of the Melbourne Cricket Club (MCC). "It's a truly special feeling to have the historic trophy named after me," Richard's parents, said. "We put a lot together and had a great friendship on and off the cricket field."

The First Test in Antigua has now become the semifinals of the World Cup, which was played behind closed doors due to the 100th edition of the Wisden Cup in 1985.
Medvedev stays No.1 but no longer flies a flag

The set of athletes is moving towards gender parity in its highest executive level but needs to ensure women stay in the sport beyond 18, World Athletics President Sebastian Coe said.

In an interview with a small group of reporters, Coe said that in the majority of athletics, women are called it a day for all sorts of reasons, “It may be professional reasons, ‘he said. “It may be professional reasons, ‘he said. Coe said when he visits athletics clubs, one potential barrier to women’s participation is that they must feel safe.

One potential barrier to women’s participation is that they must feel safe when they are running or training; another is that they must be able to afford the time, money, and facilities to participate.

Coe said that when he visits athletics clubs, one potential barrier to women’s participation is that they must feel safe when they are running or training; another is that they must be able to afford the time, money, and facilities to participate.
ON INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY, QATAR'S FIRST INTERNATIONAL DRESSAGE RIDER WEJDAN MAJED AL-MALKI—WHOSE SKILLS WERE RECENTLY ON SHOW AT QF—EXPLAINS HOW SHE MADE IT TO THE TOP AGAINST ALL ODDS

J umes Klopp and Inter Milan were not coming to terms with theenment of victory in the Champions League quarter-finals. Klopp was in his second leg, which he had been due to take in Istanbul on Tuesday, but after the Reds, Alexei Leonov had been out for longer than usual. Nevertheless, it did not deter Liverpool from going on to win the match and qualifying for the semi-finals.

Inter Milan were not to be outdone, however, as they defeated the Reds 3-0 to secure their place in the last four of the competition. The game was a physical battle from the start, with both teams looking to control the pace of the game and create chances. In the end, however, it was Inter who emerged victorious, thanks to goals from Brahim Diaz, Romelu Lukaku, and Alejandro Remiro.

The victory was a significant one for Inter Milan, who had already been in the semi-finals of the Champions League. With this win, they are now one step closer to the final, which will be held in Lisbon on May 31.

The outcome of the game was a testament to the strength and determination of both teams, as well as the quality of the players. It was a game of high intensity and skilled play, with both teams looking to dominate the midfield and create scoring opportunities.

With this win, Inter Milan have confirmed their place as one of the most formidable teams in Europe, and they will be looking to make a deep run in the semi-finals. The team has already demonstrated its ability to perform under pressure, and it will be interesting to see what they can achieve in the final.

In short, the victory was a testament to the strength and skill of both teams, and it was a game that will be remembered for years to come.